

Whoo News

October 2017

Fall is Definitely in the Air

September saw many different types of weather; heat wave, rain, thunder and lightning, some areas had snow powder, and of course the wonderful Delta breeze. With all those different conditions, Fall is one of my favorite times because of all that change. Not to mention my two favorite holidays; Halloween and Thanksgiving.

We will be having our Owl Harbor Pumpkin Carving, Costume, and Potluck on October 28th that you won't want to miss.

We will provide the pumpkins and carving tools, (unless you have special power tools), you wear your favorite costume and bring a side dish to share. After that, it's all ghosts and goblins from there.

A big thank you goes out to the incredible friends and tenants of Owl Harbor that participated in this year's Coastal Clean Up. I believe this was the best one so far; most organized, most trash picked up, and most people.

You are simply the best!

See you soon,
Devery, Max, Abby,
Stephanie, Twitchell and
Capt. Jack Sparrow

What's Next and What's Coming Up...

October 28

Owl Harbor Pumpkin Carving,
Costume and Potluck Party
(See page 2 for more details)

October 31

Happy Halloween!

November 5

Daylight Savings Time - set ose clocks back

th

November 23

Happy Thanksgiving! The office will be closed

November 24

Black Friday - we will be closed, and will be back in the office Saturday, November 25 at 8:00 am.

www.OwlHarbor.com

Owl Harbor Annual Coastal Clean Up

Halloween Party

Saturday, October 28th,
Noon

Be here or be a Zombie!

Join us for Our Annual Halloween Pumpkin Carving, Costume Wearing, Polluck Surprise Day!

We will provide the BBQ, beer, wine, water,
and carving tools
You wear your favorite costume,
bring a side dish to share, and pumpkin
to carve.

We will have a treat for all!

WHAT IS ON YOUR BUCKET LIST?

Working here at Owl Harbor has given me friendships that are priceless. Along with that, I have had the privilege to listen of fun and/or daring travel, life altering, life changing experiences, and things that you wanted to try, and did. They have made me wish to have a little part of that "feeling" myself. The most recent was Kurtis sharing he was going to blow glass with one of our tenants here. That was it, I needed to get a plan.

Everyone has a list of things they want to do before they die. Whether it is written down or not, there is something in this world that you would like to do, but have yet to experience/accomplish. Writing out a "bucket list" is the first step you can make towards accomplishing some of these goals. However, this can be a harder list to write than you might expect. If you use the following tips, you should be able to not only write a meaningful list, but actually accomplish it as well.
(I got this off the Internet)

1. Don't try to write it all at once
2. Think outside the box
3. Target different areas of your life
4. Read other people's lists
5. Make some easier to achieve than others.
6. Include something you can do today
7. Post it publicly
8. Set goals
9. Use both broad and targeted goals
10. Have Fun!

I'm not saying you need to go out and do this, but sometimes it's nice to have a little push in a direction to get the juices flowing. I currently have 5 items on my list, apparently not very adventurous. If you have something you would like to share, let me know, maybe I can add it to my list.

Good Luck!

Some good info...

*With winds come flying boat parts - please start checking on your boat, lines, halyards, fendering and any potential loose items. This is the start of the year where we start collecting items for Christmas gifts from things that come off your boat during windy times.

*The holidays will be here before you know it. As a little something, get your favorite boating enthusiast an Owl Harbor t-shirt, now on sale for $10. Get them now for better choice of size and color.

*There's a new beer room in town, Isleton town on Main St., called Mei Wah Beer Room. I've heard good things about it, along with a great selection of 24 taps of local and craft beer, kombucha and nitro coffee.

*Interested in fishing or having fun? The Annual Rio Vista Bass Festival will start on Thursday, October 12 through Sunday, October 15. This isn't just for fisherman, there is a carnival, music, vendor booths, Soapbox Derby and more. Check out the information at: www.bassfestival.com

*Rare chance to get a covered slip, available Oct. 1. Slip is 36' long and 13.6' wide and will be $349.20 monthly rent at 36'.

We appreciate you letting us know of things around the marina that may need to be looked at. We would also like to know of places you have traveled around the Delta that were enjoyable. We would love to share the news with all our friends so they too may take in "that Delta Feeling".

Enjoy the Fall and all its Glory!