DECEMBER 2024

Happy Holidays!

'Tis the season to be jolly – we hope so. It has been a wonderful year here at the marina and have loved getting to meet our new members of the community. The weather was perfect for our summer adventures, and it seems that winter is here for our boating projects – inside the boat at least.

The garden gave us one last “Hoorah” of bell peppers, jalapeno peppers and serrano peppers, with a few still available in the office. I feel like I got my fill on fresh cantaloupe, so it was a great, and productive harvest. The girls, otherwise known as the chickens, started laying and egg production really took off. It appears all the new hens are just that, hens. Not a rooster in the bunch, so next years production should keep everyone with plenty of eggs.

As we wind down, I always like to reflect on how grateful I am with the friendships that have been made, the laughter, smiles, and watching you enjoying your boat, the Delta, and loving life. It warms my heart to provide a beautiful place for you to come, invite family and friends, and experience this place that is like no other.

I feel so blessed to be a part of Owl Harbor. I wish you health, peace and joy for the holiday and the New Year to come,

Devery and Captain Jack Sparrow
