Community Updates

A New Beginning

Welcome to the first edition of Harbor Hoots! This newsletter is a little something my staff and I put together to share the exciting events and news happening at the marina. With my first month of ownership coming to a close, I'm happy to say things are going well. We've kicked off some new marina community outreach programs, like Owl Talk and Saturday morning dog walks. The 17th annual swap meet was a blast, with beautiful weather and plenty of quality boat parts to barter for—thank you to everyone who participated! We are so grateful for your continued support.

Max's Corner

What we have available:

- Two covered slips available for rent
- Two covered parking spaces
- We offer mobile pump outs on Thursdays ($20). For 20 gallons. As well as emergency pump outs ($50).

Please join me on Saturdays for our morning coffee and dog walk! I will lead the way as we take a stroll aound the marina.
- Max

Other Info

- We've had a few bumps in the road during the transition. If there's been an error on your latest invoice, my apologies. Please call or swing by the office, and we'll work hard to get it right.

- You might have noticed that you can now pay your invoice online with a credit card without any service fees to you. We also accept credit cards in the office.

Reminders

- My main goal in running Owl Harbor is to keep you, your loved ones, and your pets safe. Please keep that in mind as I ask you to slow down to the Owl Harbor speed limit. I know it will take you a couple of extra minutes to get to your boat or your home. Max and I thank you from the bottom of our hearts.
